- In 2009, 20,562 individuals visited Territorial Statehouse State Park Museum. 2009 Millard County population was approximately 13,702 according to Governor's Office of Planning and Budget population estimates. So, in 2009, the county, the park, and its staff hosted a number of individuals that equates to about 1.5 times the size of the county's current population.
- Current information about visitor spending and economic impacts is not available for Territorial. However, on average, State Park visitors generate an additional $0.62 in economic impact to local communities from every dollar spent during their visit to a park.
- In 2009, the City of Fillmore received $1,547 in sales and use taxes from park operations.
- Territorial is a central location for key community events and activities within Fillmore and also provides lectures, workshops, historical reenactments, and demonstrations. The park is a central to Utah's history, and serves the needs of many of the county's school children.
- Millard County and the Division help facilitate public access to some of the state's best OHV recreation areas. In 2008, 2,163 OHVs and 52 snowmobiles were registered within Millard County. These yield revenues (in the form of payments in lieu of taxes) to the county of about $59,483 for OHV registrations and $1,430 for snowmobile registrations for a total of $60,913. There are more OHV and snowmobile enthusiasts who visit the area each year bringing revenues through visitor spending within the County. Utah State Parks is a strong partner with Millard County in promoting and providing these OHV and snowmobile opportunities.
- The Division's Boating Program collects data and information on boating-related activities and opportunities in each county. In 2009, Millard County had 1 boat dealer, and the Division's Boating Program authorized (or listed as current) 2 Captain/Guide licenses and boat crew permits within the county. The division helps facilitate economic impacts to the county through the provision of boating and water-based recreation opportunities.
- Territorial Statehouse State Park Museum provides a number of essential, community-oriented services and frequently partnerships with the county in providing or sharing resources (PROVIDE EXAMPLES – back up for local law enforcement agencies, education programs to schools, wildland fire support, community event staff support, search and rescue availability, etc.).
