WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

Todd welcomed everyone to the meeting. Everyone introduced themselves.

APPROVAL OF JANUARY MINUTES

Todd wanted to make the correction of his last from Anderson to Adams.

Kevin made the motion to accept the minutes with the corrections stated. Wade seconded the motion. All were in favor.

UTAH FOUR WHEEL DRIVE REP DISCUSSION/APPROVAL

Craig ,Utah Four Wheel Drive Association, introduced himself and shared his background with the Council.

Tommy made the motion to accept Craig as the new Four Wheel Drive Rep. Ben seconded the motion. All were in favor.

The At Large Rep announcement should be going out this week or the beginning of next.

PROGRAM UPDATE

Utah State Parks OHV Program will be partnering with SILTA again this year to sponsor the Ride On! Video contest. Both partners would like the Council to judge those videos again this year. The Council would be more than happy to judge the videos.

SB15, Snowmobile registration increase, went through the Senate without any incident. It is now on the House floor. There is much discussion from the House on this bill. Chris has been at the Capital watching and answering questions on this bill.

Another bill we are watching deals with the Implement of husbandry registration and a new Type II Class A category. This bill has not been numbered yet.

On February 7 at 8 am please listen to the State Parks budget presentation to the Natural Resources and Agriculture committee.
