Mill Hollow Complex

- Mirror Lake, Mill Hollow, and Strawberry snowmobile complexes
- Located within a one-hour drive of Salt Lake City and the Wasatch Front

The combination of complexes is rapidly becoming the most attractive feature of these snowmobile areas in the state due to proximity to the Wasatch Front, diversity of groomed trails, and extensive play and hill climbing opportunities.

Adjacent peaks rise to 13,000 feet surrounded by a one-hour drive of Salt Lake City and the Wasatch Front, these complexes can be accessed via eight major trailheads.

The Soapstone Trail offers tremendous views of the Strawberry Valley as it climbs through the switchbacks and turns on the mountainside. Extensive play and hill climbing areas are available.

Expansive play areas are located immediately adjacent to the trail at lower elevations. Most of the trail winds leisurely through the tall evergreen forests with the exception of the high mountain summit where riders can enjoy panoramic views of the surrounding area. The trail is one of the best maintained trails in the state.
