26. KODACHROME BASIN STATE PARK 105 S PARIA LANE CANNONVILLE, UT 84718

Sixty-seven large stone spires called sedimentary pipes accentuate 180 million years of sandstone layers. The color and beauty here prompted a 1948 National Geographic Society expedition team to name the area Kodachrome after the popular color film.

27. LOST CREEK STATE PARK CROYDON, UT 84018

Lost Creek State Park is located roughly 10 miles northeast of Croydon in Morgan County. This new state park has historically been a popular recreation spot for those looking to paddle, fish, swim, and camp in the area around the reservoir. The area is currently undeveloped with only primitive recreation options. We ask visitors to remain patient during the planning and construction process. Future park visitors to the area can expect modern campgrounds, restrooms, entrance, and trailheads.

28. MILLSITE STATE PARK FERRON CANYON ROAD FERRON, UT 84523

Camp in the quiet campground, and boat and fish on the blue waters of Millsite Reservoir. Golf on a nearby municipal course or bring off-highway vehicles and mountain bikes to enjoy miles of trails in Ferron Canyon.

29. OTTER CREEK STATE PARK 400 E STATE ROUTE 22 ANTIMONY, UT 84712

Access three ATV trails, including the Paiute, directly from the park. Lure a record catch from Otter Creek Reservoir or spend an evening with friends and family at the group pavilion.
