Fun Facts!

Reptiles in the desert brumate during the winter, slowing their metabolic rate to survive the cold temperatures.

Leaves change color in the fall due to the plant stopping production of the green pigment chlorophyll.

The first week of November is Desert Tortoise Week!

Dates to Know

Sunday 2nd - Daylight Savings: Fall Back! Remember to set your clocks back.

Tuesday 11th - Veterans Day: Visitation may be higher than normal. Please be patient and flexible with plans.
