

Vendor Information for Camp Floyd State Park's Cowboy Way of Life June 13, 2026

Camp Floyd State Park was home to the United States Army, Mormon Pioneers, Stagecoach Travelers, and the Pony Express. The Army arrived in 1858 and constructed Camp Floyd to suppress a supposed Mormon rebellion. The Army remained here for three years before being recalled for the Civil War. Today, Camp Floyd State Park features three structures and a cemetery. Visitors can visit the museum and Stagecoach Inn and learn about this nationally important historic site.

For Camp Floyd State Park is looking for vendors with a Western, Cowboy, Cowgirl, Country or Historic theme to enhance the show. Crafts, art, clothing, hats, boots, tack, leatherwork, quilting, silversmiths, etc. (but all vendors will be considered). Those vendors accepted for Camp Floyd State Park will be contacted directly by the park manager.

Each day vendors are expected to remain open from 10:00 am – 5:00 pm unless arrangements have been made with the park manager.

The vendor fees are $100 for a 10 X 10 booth
$150 for a 10 X 20 booth

Set up time will be from 7:00am – 10:00 am.

Keep in mind this is an outdoor show! You will need to provide your own shelter. Power may be available upon request for an additional $20 fee.
