

AHIHB Bio

Artie Hemphill and The Iron Horse Band are a group of undisputed musicians with impressive accolades. The band's signature sound is credited to the unmistakable vocal talents of lead singer Artie Hemphill. His rich, seasoned and sultry baritone voice is un-matched in the industry. As the front man of the band, Artie delivers rock-solid lead vocals with power, energy and drive. There is no doubt that Artie is "the real deal." Add to that the band's tight three-part harmonies, extraordinary musical talents and impressive stage presence and you've got all the ingredients of a Nashville-quality touring act right in your own backyard!

Artie and the band have shared the stage with national artists such as Tim McGraw, Brad Paisley, Diamond Rio, Sawyer Brown, Phil Vassar, Joe Diffie and John Michael Montgomery. They were named winners of the Stadium of Fire Talent Competition in front of a screaming crowd of 46,000!

As thousands of fans will attest, the best way to experience Artie Hemphill & The Iron Horse Band is see them perform live. Grab your blanket, your picnic dinner, your family and come join us for a great evening of country music!
